

Logistics & Supply Chain Mgt

Certificate of Completion (CC)

Overview

Logistics and supply chain management have been described as the planning and coordination of the activities necessary to achieve the desired levels of service at the lowest possible cost. This course explores the key managerial tasks that should be coordinated and controlled to achieve an efficient and effective logistics and supply chain programme for the organization. The course focuses on helping participants gain new insights into how the application of the tools can transform their competitive position.

Annual Tuition

$100

Course Duration

Full Time: 4 weeks average

E-mail: admissions@elbc-edu.org.uk

Programme

- Understanding international logistics and supply chain concepts
- Logistics customers service management
- Developing logistics philosophy and planning
- Procurement of goods and services within the supply chain
- Legal issues in Logistics
- Ethical issues in Logistics
- Exploring the applications of the contracts of trade
- Category Management within the context of domestic procurement.
- Inventory Management
- What are inventories?
- How are they organized, managed.
- Inventory roles in the supply chain
- Warehouse concepts and application
- Supply chain simulation and financial issues
- Transportation/Haulage of goods
- Financial considerations
- IT application of people issue
- IT applications to logistics/SC
- People make Logistics happens
- Performance Management

Key Learning Outcomes

Acquisition and internalization of the skills and tools necessary to efficiently and effectively manage organisation's logistics and supply chain especially in challenging times.

Target Audience

- Logistics and supply chain Managers
- Shipping and transport Managers
- Maritime & Freight Forwarders
- Warehousing Managers